WE NEED FINTECH NOW, MORE THAN EVER

In October 2020, Tel Aviv will host the 5th annual edition of FinTech Junction, a must-attend event that will bring together fintech, technology and business leaders to discuss the latest technologies, solutions and innovation disrupting financial services.

The coronavirus pandemic has changed everything, from the way we live and work to the way we consume and do financial services.

In this new reality, banks and financial services companies will have to accelerate the development of their digital services, protect even more their customer data and improve their user friendliness, ease-of-use, transparency and seamless service on a variety of platforms.

FinTech Junction brings together the companies with the best fintech solutions that enable businesses to do just that, and even more.

We invite you to join us at FinTech Junction Tel Aviv 2020 and take your businesses to the next level!
